 BIOGRAPHY: "Thomas Hale, the glover, of Newbury, Massachusetts (1635) and his descendants" by Robert Safford Hale. FHL US/Can film #1320937 Item 4. On p. 4 is a hand written correction at the bottom of the page stating: "This is an error. The John Rolfe who was the father of Moses Rolfe of Woodbridge, N.J., was brother of the Benjamin who married Apphia Hale, and not son. see page 19." signed R.L.H.
 On page 19 R.L.H. wrote referring to the second paragraph, "Error, see p. 7 - Moses Rolph the husband of Mary Hale was the son of John Rolfe, a brother of Benjamin Rolfe who married Apphia Hale (see page 7.) - their father was Henry Rolfe, who was an early settler of Newbury, Mass., & who came from England with his mother Honour Rolfe, a widow, about 1638. - John the son of Henry married Mary Scullard and had ten children, at least five of whom, John, Joseph, Henry, Benjamin and Moses settled in Woodbridge N.J." signed R.L.H.

 BIOGRAPHY: The Early Rolfe Settlers of New England" Volume I by Frederick G. Rolfe states: "John Rolfe (2.3), son of Henry Rolfe (1.1), was born about 1634 in England, probably at Whiteparish, Wiltshire Co. His birth date was recorded as 10 May 1634 at Cambridge, Mass. CHILD 1 - Mary Scullard (Continued) child and while John was away from Newbury that Mary became involved in a scandal with a Dr. Henry Greenland, a new-comer to Newbury. He was found guilty of adultery and ordered out of Newbury. He went first to Kittery, Maine from where he was forced to leave. He then relocated to Piscataway, New Jersey where he and his family settled. Shortly after John's return to Newbury, he, Mary and their dau. Mary & Rebecca relocated to Nantucket where their next five children were born. About 1672 the family relocated to a part of Cambridge that is now Arlington where he purchased and operated "Cook's Mill". Three, possibly four of their children were born there. John died 1 October 1681 at Newbury in the home of his brother, Benjamin. He had purchased land in Woodbridge, N.J. shortly prior to his death. It was shortly after his death that the family, with the exception of the dau., Rebecca, relocated to Woodbridge where they changed the spelling of their surname to Rolph."

CHILD 3 - Martha Scullard

NOTE: Martha's name came up on the Ordinance Index. Perhaps her name is confused with Mary's. The records will have to be checked to see if she really exists. If she does, her ordinance work has been done. Her name is not mentioned in "The Grantees & Settlements of Hampton, N.H." The only names of children mentioned are Mary, Rebecca and Sarah.
